Join Our Launch Sponsor Program

The Plymouth Independent is set to launch the week of November 20th and we are offering a special launch sponsorship opportunity.

From November 26 through December 31, your business logo will become a part of the Plymouth Independent experience. By joining us as a launch sponsor, your business will be taking advantage of the excitement and buzz surrounding the publication of our first stories, and you will be demonstrating the importance of local news to the local community.

We offer 3 Launch Sponsor Levels: LAUNCH CHAMPION, CHANGEMAKER, and PATHFINDER. Sponsorship includes the placement of your business logo in a rotation throughout the Plymouth Independent site. Spaces for this program are limited and are allocated on a first come basis.

If you have additional questions or would like to secure your spot as a Launch Sponsor, please email patrick@plymouthindependent.org today!

worse. Plymouth's unrelenting expansion brings with it issues and concerns that can only be addressed through a free exchange of facts and informed opinions.

Plymouth Independent Editor Mark Pothier

So, after a long absence from local journalism – including a year-long fellowship followed by more than 22 years as an editor and writer at The Boston Globe – I've returned to my roots as editor of the Plymouth Independent. This isn't a late career nostalgia tour; it's more like a mission.

Thank you to our Launch Sponsors

Thanks to a dedicated group of concerned residents who formed our board of directors, and the crucial advisory presence of former Boston Globe Spotlight editor Walter Robinson, the Independent was established earlier this year with a goal of bringing locally grown journalism back to town by the end of 2023. We've reached that first milestone. With your financial support, the site can swiftly grow from these modest roots, serving as a source of vital information, as well as an online community gathering place. And it's all free. We encourage your feedback and participation. (You can email me at mark@plymouthindependent.org.)

Even though I never left Plymouth, the Independent feels like a homecoming. It's good to be back.

Mark Pothier, editor

We believe that journalism as a public service should be free to the community. That's why the support of donors like you is critical.
